SPECIAL TRIBUTE

To

Dr. Hikmet Jamil

LET IT BE KNOWN, That it is a distinct privilege to congratulate Dr. Hikmet Jamil as he is recognized with the 2019 Lifetime Achievement Award by the Chaldean American Association for Health Professionals. This award honors community leaders who have improved the quality of life in Michigan through their civic, philanthropic, and professional accomplishments in the field of medicine.

Dr. Hikmet Jamil is highly regarded for his many facets of medical and professional leadership. Highly educated, he graduated from the University of Baghdad's College of Medicine in 1962, obtained a Master of Science in occupational medicine in 1975 from the University of London, and earned a Doctorate in Philosophy from the University of Manchester in 1978. He currently serves as a family medicine physician with more than 38 years of experience. Dr. Jamil is a referee to several national and international peer journals, and he reviews several more leading scientific journals, serving in capacities such as chief editor, deputy editor, and secretary general. Dr. Jamil has published over 170 scientific research projects and has authored 20 books in the field of occupational health and safety. In addition to these responsibilities and achievements, Dr. Jamil is also a professor at Wayne State University as well as the founder and president of the International Society of Iraqi Scientists in Michigan. He is a passionate and empathetic leader whose professional efforts have greatly improved the quality of life and public health throughout the state of Michigan.

IN SPECIAL TRIBUTE, Therefore, we congratulate Dr. Hikmet Jamil on being honored with the 2019 Lifetime Achievement Award. His devotion to the community is truly admirable. May he know of our warmest wishes for success in all his future endeavors.
